

Your Weekly News & Updates

Here is this week's "Weekly Roundup" from Real Estate Investing Today, the news & views site from the National Real Estate Investors Association.

Visit Our Website

Housing Starts & Permits Up in August

The U.S. government is reporting that privately-owned housing starts in September were at a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 1,415,000, which is 1.9% higher than August's revised number. September's rate for units in buildings with five units or more was 295k. Click here to read more.

Delinquencies Up 2.8% Year-Over-Year

According to the latest CoreLogic Loan Performance Insights Report, as of July, 6.6% of mortgages were delinquent by at least 30+ days including those in foreclosure. Click here to read more.

Top 15 Hottest Cities for Millennial Renters

We love posting about millennials, if for no other reason than just like every other generation they, too need a place to live. In fact, they have now taken over from the Baby Boomers as the largest generation to date and make up a majority of our nation's workforce. Click here to read more.

The Great American Move Accelerates

As readers of those site know, investors can glean a lot of information by looking at U-Haul rental data about where people are moving to and from. The John Burns Real Estate Consulting firm recently released an update to their analysis of U-Haul rental rates between U.S. cities. Click here to read

CDC's New Eviction Ban Guidance Explained

On a recent episode of Real Estate News for Investors, Kathy Fettke takes a look at the CDC's recently issued set of FAQs to help understand what it is saying (and not saying) as well as other areas that she says have caused some confusion. Click here to read more.

Top 10 Housing Markets Most Vulnerable to Pandemic's Impact

What are the top 10 housing markets most vulnerable to COVID-19's Impact? In a recent special report, ATTOM Data looked at the U.S. housing markets that are more or less at risk of an economic impact related to the Coronavirus pandemic. Click here to read more.

New CA Law Gives Tenants, Housing Groups & Locals Gov't First Crack at Buying Foreclosures

According to Mortgage News Daily, a new California law taking effect on January 1st will seek to hinder a repeat of the 1000's of single-family homes that converted from ownership to rental properties during the "Great Recession." Click here to read more.

Softwood Lumber Prices Surge in September

According to the NAHB's Eye on Housing (using recent data from the Bureau of Labor Statistics), Softwood Lumber prices have surged a record 29% in September, pushing building materials up 4.4% in 2020. Click here to read more.

Most Searched-for Products on Amazon

Infographic: Does the Amazon truck swing by your home or office on a regular basis? There is a very good chance that it does just like millions of other people all across the nation. Today's infographic from Visual Capitalist does a deep-dive into what exactly people are searching on that big shopping behemoth. Click here to read more.

Stay up to date:

To learn more about these and other important issues affecting the real estate investing industry, visit

RealEstateInvestingToday.com and follow on Twitter @REI2Day.